

Dr. PAWAN KUMAR SINGH

DM in Clinical Hematology

Director Blood & Marrow Transplantation

Dr. Pawan Kumar Singh is a renowned Haemato Oncologist & Bone Marrow Transplant specialist. He completed his DM in Haematology from the prestigious All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Delhi. With more than 15 years of experience, Dr. Pawan is credited with the highest number of Haematopoietic Stem Cell Transplant in Autoimmune Diseases especially Multiple Sclerosis. He has performed more than 800 Blood & Marrow Transplants including Matched Sibling Donor (MSD), Matched Unrelated Donor (MUD) and Haplo in adults and paediatric patients. He along with his team also specialise in treating Paediatric Solid Tumours.

Over the years he has authored various articles in both national and international publications and is also actively involved in research work related to Haematology.

Education and Training

- MBBS
- MD (Internal Medicine)
- DM (Haematology)

Previous Associations

- Director - Centre for Bone Marrow Transplant at BLK-Max Super Speciality Hospital, New Delhi
- Senior Consultant and Head of Department- Hemato-oncology and BMT at Artemis Hospital, Gurugram
- Associate Consultant- Department of Haemato-oncology and BMT at Jaypee Hospital, Noida
- Senior Resident- Department of Haematology at All India Institute of Medical Sciences, New Delhi
- Senior Registrar- Department of Haematology at Christian Medical College, Vellore

Treatment Specialisation

- Experience in performing complicated procedures such as: BMT in HIV and Hepatitis virus infected patients, Bloodless BMT in Jehovah witness cases, BMT in patients on dialysis and many more
- BMT in patients with Thalassemia and Sickle Cell Disease

Membership:

- Indian Society of Haematology & Blood Transfusion
- European Haematology Association