

Dr. ARCHIT PANDIT

M.S. (Gold Medalist)
Laparoscopic and Robotic Surgery

Director & Head of Department Surgical Oncology

Dr. Archit Pandit is reckoned amongst the leading Surgical Oncologists of the country. His focussed areas of expertise include GI, Gastro-Esophageal, Gynaec, Pancreatic, Laparoscopic and Robotic Cancer Surgeries, to mention a few. He has the distinction of performing more than 10,000 complex surgeries during his career spanning about a decade and a half.

Education and Training

- MBBS from J.N. Medical College, Belgaum
- M.S. in General Surgery from J.N. Medical College, Belgaum
- Surgical Oncology (AIIMS Trained)

Previous Associations

- MAX Cancer Centre, MAX Shalimar Bagh
- BLK Cancer Centre, BLK-Max Super Speciality Hospital
- AIIMS, IRCH (Institute Rotary Cancer Hospital)

Fellowships

- Laparoscopic & Robotic Gynae, GI & Thoracic Cancer Surgery from Galaxy Care Multi-speciality Hospital, Pune
- Thoracoscopic Lung Cancer Surgery from Thoracic Surgery and Lung Transplant Department, Yonsei University Severance Hospital, Seoul, South Korea
- Minimally Invasive Gastro Esophageal Cancer Surgeries from National Cancer Center, Tokyo, Japan

Treatment Specialisation

- Robotic Surgery
- Laparoscopic / Keyhole / Scarless Cancer Surgeries
- Pancreato-biliary, Thoracic and Gastro-Esophageal Cancer Surgery
- HIPEC Surgery
- Breast and Gynaecologic Cancer
- Ovarian and Uterine Cancer
- Head and Neck Cancer
- Lung Cancer
- Gastrointestinal Cancer
- Colon and Rectal Cancer
- Endoscopic Surgery

Achievements

- Gold medal for "Best Outgoing Surgeon" in M.S. Surgery from Karnataka State, RGUHS in 2008
- Video Award in 2013 at Indian Cancer Congress and ACOS 2016
- Conducted Live Operative Workshop on Thoraco-Laparoscopic Esophageal Cancers at MICC, New Delhi
- Acknowledged for removing Largest Tumour in India